ALINE THOMPSON

THE gay month of May will soon give way to the new month of brides, at fresco affairs and preparations for the July carnival festivities. All really prominent men and women all over town are taking an active interest in the annual Cherry Fair, particularly the floral parade. It will be a week of gaieties not only for the stranger within our gates, but for us all.

The past week has been filled almost entirely with impromptu affairs and small informal gatherings.

Dancing of course has occupied the limelight and the Hotel Marion dinner dance last night was among the smart functions of the week. Other charming affairs were: the luncheon presided over by Mrs. W. P. Lord Tuesday, the bridge given by Mrs. Frank Spencer, yesterday, the tea for which Mrs. Charles Parks was hostess Friday, and the numerous small informal attentions with which society was busy greeting visitors and bidding adieu to members of their set who will leave before the end of next month.

A charming affair of the week was the smart bridge tea for which Mrs. Frank Spencer was hostess Friday afternoon. The rooms where the card tables were arranged were artistically decked with fragrant roses, and the high score honors fell to Mrs. L. P. Griffith and Mrs. E.S. Tillinghast. After the game a few additional guests came in for tea.

Mrs. Milton Meyers and Mrs. W. P. Babcock presided over the samovars, and Mrs. J. G. Richardson assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Livesley left Wednesday evening for a several weeks sojourn in Seattle.

Close to seventy matrons and maids motored out to the beautiful country residence of Mrs. Charles Park Friday to participate in the pretty tea which she planned as a courtesy to the Y. W. C. A. board of directors and their assistants in the recent local campaign work.

Quantities of fragrant roses were used about the rooms and also adorned the tea tables, over which Mrs. Stella Blackerby and Miss Florence Cleveland presided. A group of young girls assisted in the serving.

The informality of the affair combined with the graciousness of the hostess made it one of the most delightful of the week's festivities.

As a token of appreciation and remembrance to Mrs. Blackerby the guests presented her with a charming gift.

Mrs. Park's guests included Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. G. O. Brown, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. J. O. Goltra, Mrs. John H. Lewis, Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Miss Nina McNary, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Oda Chapman, Miss Veda Cross, Miss Margaret Wishart, Mrs. D. J. Fry, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. G. W. Pewtherer, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Miss Angelina McCullach, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Miss Florence Cleveland, Mrs. Stella Blackerby, Mrs. John H. Albert, Miss Edith Hanzard, Miss Lillian Applegate, Miss Lena Ramseyer, Mrs. P. H. Spears, Miss Cora Tillinghast, Miss Grace Bean, Miss Hazel Downing, Mrs. Wagner of Portland,

Mrs. Clifford Farmer (Edna Josse) a charming young bride of last week.

Miss Aline Judd, vocal soloist, who was presented in recital at Woodburn Wednesday evening.

with a charming informal Kensington Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Wright of McMinnville. About a dozen matrons were asked to meet the visitor, who will be the guest of her daughter for several days longer.

At the conclusion of an enjoyable afternoon, refreshments were served at a table prettily adorned with fragrant carnations and geraniums.

Honoring Miss Ellen Thielsen, who is planning to leave soon for Boston, Mass., Miss Veda Cross entertained informally Wednesday afternoon. It was a charming Kensington and the guests who were a few of Miss Thielsen's friends included Mrs. George W. Gray, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Elmer Ludden, Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Ralph Jackson (Maude Durbin), Mrs. E. A. Thurber of Colorado Springs, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Marie Hofer. Miss Cross was assisted by Miss Hofer.

Miss Elizabeth Lord will have as her guest again this summer Miss Elsa Dimel, the charming San Francisco girl who visited here last year. Miss Dimel is expected early in June and her return visit will cause much rejoicing in the younger set, with whom she became very popular. She will be accompanied as far as Eugene by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Dimel, and small children, who are planning to spend the summer at their attractive new summer place on the McKenzie river.

The guests included Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Charles C. Spaulding, Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mrs. Charles Elgin, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. J. O. Bailey, Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. L. H. Van Winkle, Mrs. E. B. Ringo, Mrs. P. S. Gunnett, Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, Mrs. Rosa Luper, Mrs. Roma Hunter, Mrs. Lloyd Stuffer, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. Percy Cupper, Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Robert Simpson, Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mrs. George Post, Mrs. L. M. Houston, Mrs. Paul Schmitt, Mrs. John Graber, Miss Marie Hofer and the Misses Lucile and Eugenia Belle.

Charming with vases and bowls of lovely Cecil Brunner roses arranged artistically about the rooms, about a dozen matrons enjoyed an afternoon over the bridge tables at the residence of Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Monday. It was very informal, only the members of the Bridge club and a table of guests being asked.

The high score honors fell to Mrs. John Craig. The additional guests were Mrs. E. O. Siecke, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. E. S. Tillinghast, Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Fred Waters. Miss Lucile Patton assisted her mother in the serving.

Perhaps the smartest and gayest dinner dance given this season by the management of the Hotel Marion was the one given Friday night. A large number of the married set and young-er belles and beaux attended the function. Pretty blossoms adorned the tables, which were surrounded by several smart parties and happy congenial groups.

Among the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Thielsen, whose guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Amiel Bush, Jr. and Mrs. Harry Clay, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Siecke and Mr. and Mrs. John Cughell's guests included Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Locke, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Olington, Mrs. Fred Stewart and Mrs. Lovelace.

Miss Florence Hofer has as her week-end guest Miss Myrtle Albright of Marquam.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson in Portland for several days, returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen were hosts for a charming and pretty dinner party Thursday evening. Pink and yellow snap dragons, decked the artistically appointed table which had covers for Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam were the guests of Brigadier General and Mrs. George A. White in Portland Tuesday. In the evening the Whites entertained their guests with a dinner at the Hotel Benson and later at the theatre to see Otis Skinner, in "The Cook o' the Walk."

A charming affair of the week was the luncheon for which Mrs. W. P. Lord was hostess, Tuesday. The table decorations were unusually artistic; a huge crystal bowl filled with yellow lilies and white geraniums was surrounded by fragrant strands of yellow jasmine.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Eugene Breymann, Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Charles Parks and the hostess.

Mrs. William L. Boat went to Portland today to be the guest of friends for a few days and to enjoy several social affairs, for which her old friends will be hostesses.

Dancing has become more of a fad than ever with society and scarcely a night passes that the dancing contingent does not indulge in its favorite pastime.

Thursday night will again find a throng whirling merrily at the armory. It is to be an informal affair and will be the last dance of the season given by the string orchestra.

A number of prominent matrons will be patronesses for the event including Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Zadoc Biggs, Mrs. Wm. H. Lytle, Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, Mrs. P. D. Thielsen, Mrs. A. Bush, Mrs. Ben W. Oloit, Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. Geo. Rodgers, Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. W. M. Plimpton, Mrs. Carlton W. Smith, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop.

The matrons of the Happy Hour bridge club and several guests enjoyed an informal afternoon over the card tables at the residence of Mrs. H. J. Bean Wednesday.

Players circled four tables of bridge and the score honors fell to Mrs. John D. Sutherland and Mrs. Joseph Alberts. Mrs. Bean was assisted by her daughter Miss Grace Bean.

Miss Rita Steiner went to Portland this morning to spend the day.

A group of young girls went to Eugene Friday to participate in the week-end festival. The party included: Miss Gretchen Brown, Miss Amelie Babcock, Miss Elizabeth Bain and Miss Edna Ackerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weller have moved and are domiciled in their new residence on 165 North Seventeenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Portland were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer.

About thirty of the married set motored to the Henry B. Thielsen country residence "Derry Orchards", Tuesday evening to attend the delightful five hundred party for which Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thielsen were hosts.

Guests were asked for seven tables of the game, card honors falling to Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr. and Thomas R. Kay. The rooms were aglow with a profusion of beautiful and colorful wild flowers.

Assisting in the serving were Miss Edna Simington and Miss Marie Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Thielsen's guests were the members of the "Merry-Go-Round club" including Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John McNary, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson.

One of the prettiest of the week's dinners was that presided over by Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Wednesday evening. The table which was adorned artistically with red and white carnations and greens had covers for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. A. L. Lovelace. Dinner was followed by an evening of bridge.

Allen Hymer has as his week end guest Homer Eggs, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural College this year.

One of the gayest and merriest of the week's festivities will be the all fresco party for which Miss Nannelle Bloom will be hostess tonight.

A luncheon will convey the happy party up the river, where a delightful picnic supper will round out the evening. About eighteen young folk will be guests including Miss Barbara Steiner, Miss Florence Hofer, Miss Helen Duckabach, Miss Louise Benson, Miss Myrtle Albright, Miss Lucille McCully, Miss Evelyn Cathy, Allan Bynon, Clarence Byrd, "Jack" Carson, Homer

Spring sickness comes in some degree to every man, woman and child in our climate.

It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impoverished, deoxygenated blood.

It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired feeling, and in many cases by some form of eruption.

The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old reliable family medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. It is an all-the-year-round alternative and tonic, and is absolutely the best spring medicine.

Get your blood in good condition at once—now. Delay may be dangerous. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist on having nothing else can take its place.

Miss Margaret Rodgers who is attending Miss Catlin's school in Portland came home today to spend the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers. She was accompanied by Miss Marion Howe of Carlton, who will be her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shroat and Mr. and Mrs. "Tony" Motcham of Portland were among the out of town guests attending the dinner dance at the Hotel Marion last night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Rice were hosts
